Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 10, ISSUE 24

JUNE 12, 2026

National Hermit Week!

National Hermit Week is an annual observance from June 13-20, celebrating the joy of solitude, self-reflection, and quiet time away from the hustle of daily life. Wow—that sounds wonderful right about now.

When I told a friend I was writing about Hermit Week, she asked if it was about hermit crabs. I said no, but she suggested a crab picture anyway since hermits are usually crabby.

Life has been nuts around here the past couple of weeks—surgeries, funerals, VBS, voting—if we could manage to have a wedding & a Baptism this week, we would have hit everything that the church handles.

Long story, short. If you can't find me next week, I'm celebrating Hermit Week. It's a great way to recharge.
