I just had the wonderful privilege of spending five days in Brevard with our first grandchild. Cody is adorable! Yes, I know that all grandparents say that, but in this case it's true. He was on a tight schedule—eating every 1-2 hours, even at night! Well, that is past us now and hopefully the sleep deprivation level of his parents will start improving.

I also got to see a sweet friend while I was there. Ms. Thelma is Reita Stone's sister and she lives in assisted living about 100 yards from our daughter! I regret not taking a picture with her!! What a sweet visit we had! I'm sure I will see her again soon since I may have to go back to Brevard eventually.

Have a great week & call if you need anything!
