What is Orange Wine? Yuck!

National Orange Wine Day takes a bold sip of an ancient method of making wine. This little-known style of wine shines with its bold flavor and auburn color and is gaining some appreciation with vineyards, wine cellars, & lovers.

Originally made nearly 6,000 years ago in Eastern Europe, the technique for making orange wine is making a comeback. Surprisingly, winemakers do not add oranges to the wine at all. Unlike the latest beer trends, the wine comes by its color naturally. Fermented from white wine grapes, the orange wine develops through more skin contact during fermentation. Makers treat the white grapes like red grapes preserving the bolder body & tannins. As a result, the ordinarily white wine will deepen into a brandy orange color.

Despite the wine's obscurity, orange wine makes appearances at wine shows. Vineyards display their orange efforts from the U.S. to Australia. Get in on the tasting & find a bottle to share!

Luke 7:23 ~ "Blessed are those who are not offended by me."

HOW SOUTHERN PEOPLE SAY SOMEONE'S DRUNK

- He's drunker than Cooter Brown.
- He winked at the ceiling fan and said, "you ain't like the other girls."
- He tried to unlock his truck with a Slim Jim wrapper.
- He waved at a mailbox and said, "hey, tell your mamma I said hey."
- She said, "I ain't even drunk", while sitting in the dog's water bowl.
- She said, "be honest. Do I look sober?" to a police horse.
- She tried to order a taco from the ATM.
- She handed the Uber driver a Wendy's receipt and said, "keep the change."
- He slow blinked at a squirrel & called him "Buddy".
- She yelled "Roll Tide" at a funeral and she ain't even from Alabama.

THINGS YOU HEAR IN A SMALL TOWN EMERGENCY ROOM

- Oh, he's fine. He don't need no stitches. Pour some peroxide on it and duct tape it shut.
- You want a $600 band-aid or you want PaPaw to tape it up? We can do this at the kitchen sink for free.
- Don't waste your money. MeMaw's got a sewing kit at the house.
- Stick a frozen bag of peas on it & hush.
- This ain't nothing a shot of whiskey won't fix.
- Just let the dog lick it. It'll heal faster.
- Just hold it together 'til it scabs. It'll be fine.
- I ain't about to sell my truck just to get you an X-ray.
- If PaPaw can fix a tractor, he can fix you.
- If it starts to smell funny, then we'll worry about it.
- Ain't no way I'm paying $800 for a doctor to say, "put ice on it."

"WHAT DOES AMEN MEAN?"

"IT MEANS
OVER AND OUT."
