

The Accidental Tale of Salt Water Taffy

Taffy was first produced in Atlantic City, New Jersey beginning in the late 1800s. It started with David Bradley, a candy store owner, whose shop flooded during a major storm in 1883, soaking his entire stock of taffy with salty Atlantic Ocean water. A young girl came into his shop and asked if he had any taffy for sale. Mr. Bradley jokingly offered her some "salt water taffy." After sampling a piece, the girl purchased the candy and proudly walked down to the beach to show her friends. The name stuck! Salt water taffy is still sold on the boardwalks in Atlantic City, nearby island Ocean City, and other tourist beachfront areas throughout the United States and Canada.

WEEKLY GIGGLES & WORDS OF WISDOM

Once in a while you meet a person that makes you smile when you think about them. They're trouble. Stay away from them.

Never do anything you wouldn't want to explain to the paramedics.

People who wonder whether the glass is half empty or half full miss the point. The glass is refillable.

Have a wonderful week!

We are all precious in the sight of the Lord...

He may shake His head a lot, but we're still precious.
