

GOLDEN AGERS

Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 7, ISSUE 43

OCTOBER 27, 2023

November is Upon Us

It's almost November and I'm ready to decorate for Christmas!! I know, I know, but if I don't get it done before the week of Thanksgiving, it won't get done. Life is crazy in December!

There are some weird celebrations this week. I love Banana Pudding and hope to celebrate that a couple of times. I LOVE the Musical Wicked, so a day to celebrate & listen to that music sounds like fun! I'm not a fan of candy corn, so I won't be celebrating that. I have an outdoor cat who wakes me on Saturdays if I sleep past his feeding time, so he will not be celebrated. I love No-Shave November, but hubby does that all the time, so it's not really a big deal. If left to my own devices, I would celebrate Hermit Day at least once a week, but I have to work that day, so maybe next year.

So please tell me who is not aware of sweet potatoes that we need an entire month for Sweet Potato Awareness? How far off of the grid do you have to be that you must be told to be aware of sweet taters? Do they do something different in November? Mine just sort of lay around until I bake them. They have never shown any real talent until I add butter & spices & a nice nutty topping & then they become the bell of the ball.

Are my sweet potatoes just slack? Did I purchase the lazy variety? Do I need to shop at better places for the fancy ones? So many questions, so little time.

Now onto important stuff!

The week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4 is:

- Red Ribbon Week
- International Magic Week
- World Origami Week
- National Farm Toy Show Week

November is:

- Adopt a Turkey Month
- Aviation History Month
- Banana Pudding Lovers Month
- Family Stories Month
- No-Shave November
- National Georgia Pecans Month
- National Gratitude Month
- National Memoir Writing Month
- Peanut Butter Lovers Month
- National Pomegranate Month
- Picture Book Month
- Sweet Potato Awareness Month

Some celebrations only last a day:

Let's finish October first...

- 29th-Reformation Day
- National Cat Day
- National Hermit Day
- National Oatmeal Day

30th-Checklist Day

National Wicked (Musical) Day
World Audio Drama Day
National Candy Corn Day

31st-National Caramel Apple Day

National Knock-Knock Joke Day
National Doorbell Day
Books for Treats Day

Now for November:

1st-

Cinnamon Day
National Vinegar Day
Forgiveness & Happiness Day
Fountain Pen Day
National Toothbrush Day
National Calzone Day
Deep Fried Clams Day
National Farm Toys Day
National Sports Fan Day

2nd-

Bison Day
Cookie Monster Birthday
Digital Scrapbooking Day
National Play Outside Day
Pumpkin Destruction Day
Sausage & Kraut Day
World Chili Day

3rd-

International Cake Day
Public Television Day
National Sandwich Day
National Housewife's Day
World Jellyfish Day

4th-

Fill Your Stapler Day
National Chicken Lady Day
National Candy Day
Easy-Bake Oven Day
Use Your Common Sense Day

Have a great week & call me if you need a ride to Stewardship Dinner Sunday!

Serving Him & Loving it!

Carol 🥰

803-360-7137 or 803-359-2470

Halloween Giggles

Where candy corn comes from

Upon Bernie's arrival, the scariest-costume competition was about to get a whole lot stiffer.