Bugs Bunny Day

Do you remember the first time you ever watched a Bugs Bunny cartoon? I don't, but only because I can't remember a time when I hadn't watched them. For us, that was part of Saturday morning! Bugs Bunny and a bowl of Cheerio's and we were set for a couple of hours. FUN!

When Cody and Josie were visiting last July, I discovered they had never seen a Bugs Bunny cartoon. They had never heard of him. How is it possible that at 2 & 3 years old they had never enjoyed this bit of childhood entertainment? Where had our daughter failed as a parent? Where had we failed with her? We must correct this NOW! But where to start?

We decided to start with the classics. As in classical music - The Barber of Seville. I was able to catch on camera the first smiles & giggles that only Bugs & Elmer Fudd can bring to the screen. It was fabulous!

There is nothing quite as wonderful as capturing the sweet smiles as they experience something for the first time. The twins were only 9 months old—still too young for Bugs, but I'll make sure they don't get too old before their intro into this magical world.

Now for the important stuff.
