August 10th

5-7 pm

Entire Congregation

ICE CREAM COMPETITION

As a part of the Blow-Out on August 10th, those "with game" are encouraged to bring a churn of homemade ice cream. (Please run your churn at home first so we don't blow a fuse.) We don't plan to have toppings (so the judging is not tainted), so your ice cream will need to be good enough to stand on its own. Prize to the crowd favorite!

Everyone is invited to join us for an afternoon of food & fun! This is for the entire congregation—cradle to grave—and will be held in the back of the graveyard (see what we did there). A party not to be missed!

We will need to borrow: Tent, coolers, folding chairs, tents, fans, power cords, & did we mention tents?

Barry & Marion will cook hot dogs & hamburgers. We need folks to bring chips, canned drinks, cookies, & brownies. It will be a huge family picnic with food, games, and a TWO blow-ups—a Firetruck bouncy house with a slide AND a 50' obstacle course that goes into a giant slide.

If you use either kitchen, please do the following:

- Check with Carol in the office to make sure the kitchen is available on that date. Conflicts are not fun. (Remember, not everything is on the website calendar.)
- Please leave things the way you found them. This includes putting away dishes after they are washed & dried. Please don't leave them in the drying rack.
- If you rearrange the FH or PLC, please put things back the way they were.

THANK YOU!
