Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 8, ISSUE 5

FEBRUARY 2, 2024

Welcome to the Shortest Month!

February might be the shortest month, but around here it is one of the busiest months! With Soup Supper on the 4th, Pancake Supper on the 13th, we're spending most of our time eating, but at least we're eating with our church family.

Lent begins this year on the 14th, which means if you don't have a Valentine, God will literally be marking the good ones for you. Don't miss out!

There are several fun things to celebrate this week. Here are a few favorites:

-Homemade Soup Day: We'll be having that celebration at church at 6 pm. Call me if you need a ride.

-Weatherman's Day: My favorite weatherman, Jim Gandy, has retired, so I don't put much stock in these guys any more. You could tell if the weather was good or bad even with the sound off since Jim's clothing would tell the whole story. As long as the jacket was on & the tie still knocked tightly, we were going to be fine. But hold onto something if the jacket was off, sleeves were rolled up, & the tie was loose. Jeff Roper used to be in town. He didn't always get it right, but he was always entertaining. He's still at it, just in a colder climate. Still crazy, too.

-Shower With a Friend Day: No thanks. That sounds frightening!

-Frozen Yogurt Day: Seriously? In February? Are you crazy? Move this to a warmer month & then I'll participate.

-Ballet Day: I took this in college from a woman who looked exactly like Star Wars' Princess Leia. No, really!

-Fettuccine Alfredo Day: This sounds warm and wonderful. Is there garlic bread included?

-National Periodic Table Day: Ok, I guess nerds need holidays, too.

-Laugh & Get Rich Day: Oh, if only it was that easy.

-Opera Day: Can we listen to the Bugs Bunny version, please? Kill the wabbit!

-National Pizza Day: All the way, thin crust, hold the anchovies.

-Read in the Bathtub Day: Sounds relaxing & wrinkly.

-Cream Cheese Brownie Day: Yum! My mother-in-law used to make these every time we went to Clemson. They were awesome!

-All the News That's Fit to Print Day: Well, this pretty much leaves out this newsletter. I'll show myself out.

Now onto important stuff!

NEW GAME:

What Is It?

Other than missing one of the red handles, can anyone tell me anything about this piece? Like what it is!? Just one of the strange & mysterious things found in my kitchen drawers. Probably purchased years ago at an estate sale in a box of other goodies.
