The More You Know...

Since the 1970s, people have celebrated 420 Day. Why 420, though? Many myths circulate about how 420 came to mean cannabis or smoking marijuana. Most of them are untrue or unverifiable. However, as related in Time magazine, one tells the story of five teenagers from San Rafael High School in Marin County, California. In 1971, they would meet at 4:20 pm, and eventually, 420 became their code for marijuana. One of the five, Dave Reddix, worked as a roadie for the Grateful Dead and further popularized the term. In 1991, High Times magazine printed a flier initially handed out by a group of Deadheads in Oakland, California. The flyer was an invitation to a 420 event to smoke marijuana. The event was held on April 20, 1990, at 4:20 pm.

Groups have been pushing for the legalization of marijuana since 1969. If passed, Cannabis would become the largest cash crop in the United States.

WEEKLY GIGGLES

- I wish I could sleep, but my A.D.D. kicks in & well basically, one sheep, two sheep, cow, turtle, duck, Old McDonald had a farm...Heey Macarena!!
- If showing up in a robe & a tiara with a box of wine is wrong, then maybe I don't fully understand how Casual Friday actually works.
- You know what's funny? Paintings of Adam & Eve where they both have belly buttons. Think about that, take as much time as you need.
- That awkward moment when you spell a word so wrong that even autocorrect is like, "I got nothing, man..."
- I could never work at a lighthouse. There is a 100% chance I'd get fired for making the bat signal.
- Someday I'll start behaving myself. Maybe tomorrow.
- Common Sense is now an endangered species. Stupidity has taken over the world and unfortunately there is no known cure.
- I dream of a world where chickens can cross the road without having their motives questioned.
- What doesn't kill you gives you a lot of unhealthy coping mechanisms and a sick sense of humor.
- Once you lick the frosting off a cupcake it becomes a muffin and muffins are healthy. You're welcome!
