

Arrr-gust—International Pirate Month!

Wow! It seems we just took down the Christmas tree and it's already AUGUST! Although I did have a dream last night where I asked my family if it was too early to put up Christmas decorations. I guess I should lay off the Christmas in July movies on the Hallmark Channel.

August is a Pirate's favorite month. Why?

- Because you can call it Arrrrr-gust.
- Because it's the only summer month name you can do that to.
- Because all the other summer & fall months have holidays already.
- Because JanuArrry, FebrArrry, and MArrrch be too cold and wet in most places fer proper piratin'.
- Because Arrpril just sounds dumb.

Oh well, August has a lot of fun things to celebrate. For example, did you know...
