ST. PETER'S
NORTH AMERICAN LUTHERAN CHURCH
LEXINGTON, SC

PROCLAIMER

November 2026

"I know this is the church, but..."

Maybe you've finished that sentence before in one situation or another in church life. You have respect for what it means to gather together as the Church. Even so, the reality of today's world presents us with many tough challenges that we shouldn't ignore.

Have you heard these kinds of things said before?

"I know this is the church, but we have to hold people accountable."
"I know this is the church, but we can't keep this forever."
"I know this is the church, but we have to get with the times."

I recently helped my fifth-grader study for a quiz on U.S. Westward Expansion & the Transcontinental Railroad. He had to be able to recall and differentiate various push and pull factors as to why people moved from one place to another during this period of time. A push factor might be a declining industry, and a pull factor might be a better job market.

When we say, "I know this is the church, but..." we're discerning both the pushes & pulls of life around us. In those situations, we're trying to prayerfully figure out what it means to be the Church in the world, but not of the world.

In John 17, Jesus prays, "they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth."

As your pastor, when I join in a conversation with you, or when I speak up in a meeting, I'm striving to listen to the needs of your heart. I'm also encouraging you to follow God's leading in your life & to seek out how He may be calling you. No pastor executes that perfectly, but it is an important calling as we shepherd our congregations.

There have been plenty of times when I wanted to be the one who could provide the perfect answer to a complex issue. Maybe you've felt that way, too. Is strong leadership about coming up with the answer? Maybe it's more of a posture of seeking wisdom than of deriving solutions. How humbling!

After all, to harken us all back to God's stark reminder to Job, "Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation? Tell me, if you understand." Yikes! Well, we always need reminding of who's really leading us. Thank you, God, for your mercy & tender care all along the way.

Where Are You Serving?

"For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." ~ Mark 10:45

As Christians, we are all challenged to serve as Christ served! We have been called to be the hands and feet of Jesus and there are many ways to do that here at St. Peter's. Search your servant heart, find your comfort level, and call the office to volunteer.

Women's Book Club—A Life Intercepted by Charles Martin

Twelve years ago, Matthew "the Rocket" Rising had it all. Married to his high school sweetheart and one of the winningest quarterbacks in the history of college football, he was the number one NFL draft pick. But on the night of the draft, he plummeted from the pinnacle of esteem. Falsely accused of a heinous crime with irrefutable evidence, it seemed in an instant all was lost—his reputation, his career, his freedom, & most devastatingly, the love of his life.

Having served his sentence & never played a down of professional football, Matthew leaves prison with one goal—to find his wife, Audrey, whom no one has seen since the trail. He returns to an unwelcoming reception from his Gardi, Georgia, hometown to learn that Audry has taken shelter from the media with the nuns at a Catholic school. There she has discovered a young man with the talent to achieve the football career Matthew should have had. All he needs is the right coach. Although helping the boy means Matthew violates the conditions of his release and—if discovered—reincarceration for life, he'll take the chance with hope of winning back Audrey's love.

Discussion is planned for Thursday, December 3, 2026 @ 6:30 pm / GR

Dear Pastors, Staff, & Parishioners,
The support, care, and love my family and I felt from St. Peter's was over whelming. Your reception and willingness to conduct Annette's celebration of life means more than words can describe.
The service was a perfect reflection of Annette's true spirit. The twinkle in her eyes and smile on her face showed A Shining Example of God's Grace and Unconditional Love. That's exactly what everyone at St. Peter's did on Saturday, October 3, 2026.

Al Holladay

A great big THANK YOU for the 20 folks who came out for the Alzheimer's Walk on October 17th and for all who gave on giving Sunday, October 18th. Sunday morning's noisy offering for Alzheimer's was $534.
