Luke 7:23 ~ "Blessed are those who are not offended by me."

When I stayed home with my kids, I had the cousins as well. All were within 4 years of each other. It's a wonder I'm as sane as I am.

Other Southern Things to Know

- "Who made the tea?" means this tea is nasty. (Unless you're asking if Jackie made it—then it is AWESOME!)
- Life is not a fairy tale. If you lose your shoe at midnight, you're drunk.
- In the South, the last "g" is silent in about 99.9% of words.
- Southern people talk to bugs before killing them: "You done flew up in the wrong house today."
- "Bless your heart!" means "thank you. You're so thoughtful."
- "Bless her heart..." means "well, she's kinda simple."
- Will Rogers said, "Never miss a good chance to shut up."
- If God can make a bug's butt light up, think what he can do for you.
