Weird Observations:

- Is it just me or is it odd that Beer Day is immediately followed by Coffee Day?
- Happy Daughters' Day? So what about the Sad Daughters, do they get a day? Or the Mad daughters, or the...well you get the idea.

-What exactly is a "Fish Tank Floorshow"?

-Sea Otter Awareness? Who is not aware that we have sea otters?

-Walk Your Dog Week. Do we really need a week for this? Aren't you supposed to walk them every day? Or better yet, put them in the yard and let them walk themselves.

-What is frugal fun? I didn't know there was any other kind.

-Name your car day. I only did that once, but a VW bug almost demands to have a name. Didn't you ever watch The Love Bug?

-Ask a stupid question day happens everyday in my world. I didn't realize it was part of a celebration.

-Why are we appreciating bats?

-Since it's Pizza Month and Sausage Month does that mean we're only allowed to eat sausage pizza?

Ok, enough of a glimpse into the strangeness that is my brain.

Have a great week & call if you need anything!
