

GOLDEN AGERS

Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 9, ISSUE 30

JULY 25, 2025

The End of July is Upon Us

School starts in two weeks and Hobby Lobby is putting out fall and Christmas stuff. Most people would think that summer is ending and fall will be here soon. Don't be fooled!

If you've lived in S.C. all of your life, you know that's not true at all! Any hint of coolness in the morning breeze is just a cruel joke. Fall is still at least two months away. The first taste of cool weather usually, but not always, hits during the State Fair which is the first week in October.

We joke about the weather here. If you don't like it, wait a while, it will change. We get a week or so of temps in the 80s in February & winters don't normally have snow. So, all in all, most of the year isn't too bad.

But then we have summer—the hottest eight months of the year! It starts in April & finally gives up the ghost near or shortly after Thanksgiving. There are usually a couple of days of fall tucked in there somewhere, but you only notice if you're up early in the morning or because you see pumpkins everywhere. Hang in there & thank God for air conditioning!

Things That Made Me Laugh Today

- My toddler pretended to leave for work this morning with no pants and a lunchbox full of mini donuts; so my questions is, where do I apply for this job?
- Apparently stress balls are not supposed to be thrown at people that are stressing you out.
- How many times do you have to click 'I accept cookies' before they send you cookies?
- I was lonely until I glued a coffee cup on the top of my car. Now everyone waves at me!
- I got my wife to help me put some posts in the ground for our new fence. I gave her a hammer and said, "when I nod my head, you hit it." I don't remember much after that.
- One thing nobody ever talks about being an adult is how much time you debate yourself on keeping a cardboard box because it's like a really, really good box.
- Does anyone else wish Jesus would walk into your kitchen, sit down with a cup of coffee, look at you & say, "ok, here's what we're going to do"?
- I officially resign from adult hood. Decisions will be made using the eenie-meenie-minie-moe method & arguments will be settled by sticking out my tongue.
- I don't understand your specific kind of crazy, but I do admire your total commitment to it.
