

GOLDEN AGERS

Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 10, ISSUE 35

AUGUST 28, 2026

Wow! September is Upon Us.

September is a weird month. It sounds like it should be fall, but the temp is still in the upper 80s at best. College football is back and if you're a fan, that makes it exciting. It's that strange decorating time of year when it's too late for the patriotic wreath, but too early for the fall one. Labor Day doesn't really have its own aisle at Hobby Lobby, so we're all at a loss.

I usually just leave up my patriotic décor until it's time for Christmas stuff. Once cantata rehearsals begin, I don't have extra time for putting up & taking down fall stuff, so I just wait. Sunday Cantata rehearsals start November 1st, so if I don't get up Christmas stuff before Halloween, it doesn't get up at all. Hmmm....on second thought, I think I'll turn on a Hallmark Christmas movie & put up my tree.

Luke 7:23 ~ "Blessed are those who are not offended by me."

- The Lord is my Shepherd. I need constant supervision.
- WWJD? Probably flip tables.
- Love your neighbor. Even that one.
- The Lord is my Shepherd. Left to myself, I get lost.
- Unqualified, but called anyway.
- Walking by faith, tripping constantly.
- His mercies are new every morning. Good—I used all of yesterday's.
- The spirit is willing. The knees are in negotiations.
- Raised on hymns, casseroles, and the King James Bible.
- God's timing is perfect. My waiting needs work.
- If you're hanging on by a thread, make sure it's the hem of his garment.
- I don't gossip. I share prayer requests... with details.
- Fisher of men. Avoider of people.
- This little light of mine flickers a lot.
- Jesus loves me, this I know. Some days that's the whole sermon.
- Still a work in progress. Aren't we all?
- Create in me a clean heart, because the house is a disaster.
- Jesus knows, and He stayed anyway.
- Walking by faith. Bad with directions.
- Fear not. Freaking out.
- Prone to wander. Needs a leash.
- Fighting the good fight. Losing my keys.
- Lead me beside still waters, because I cannot swim.
- The spirit is willing. The flesh is napping.
- Joy comes in the morning if I sleep in until 10.
