

Winnie the Pooh Day is Coming!

Winnie the Pooh Day commemorates author A.A. Milne's birthday in 1882. He brought the adorable, honey-loving bear to life in his stories, which also featured his son, Christopher Robin.

Milne's lovable Pooh Bear, as he was fondly called, is a fictional bear inspired by a black bear named Winnie. Winnie lived at the London Zoo during World War I. The author's son, Christopher Robin, would visit the bear often and named his own teddy bear after her and a swan named Pooh.

Their adventures took them and millions of children through the Hundred Acre Woods where each character played a unique role. The story's characters became beloved around the world. The stories have been translated into over 50 languages.

There are four books in the series. They are:

- When We Were Very Young (1924)
- Winnie-the-Pooh (1926)
- Now We Are Six (1927)
- The House at Pooh Corner (1928)

Our grandson, Cody, absolutely LOVES Pooh & the host of characters and when he needs to rest, his go-to movie is The Adventures of Winnie-the-Pooh narrated by Sabastian Cabot. If you haven't watched that one in a while, I highly recommend it! Spending a quiet hour with Pooh, Piglet, Kanga, Roo, Owl, Rabbit, Eeyore, and Tigger will take you back to those wonderful, fun adventures and will bring a smile to your face.
