Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 7, ISSUE 22

JUNE 2, 2023

Happy June!

A short week has left me scrambling to get the Proclaimer, the bulletin, and this newsletter done, so I don't have a long, wild story to tell this week. Special thanks to Barbara Weed, without whom nothing would have been finished this week! If you see her, remind her how much she is loved and appreciated!

Ok, now on to the important stuff!

The week of June 5-11 is:

- National Lemonade Week

YOUR HUT'S ON FIRE

The only survivor of a shipwreck was washed up on a small, uninhabited island. He prayed feverishly for God to rescue him. Every day he scanned the horizon for help, but none seemed forthcoming.

Exhausted, he eventually managed to build a little hut out of driftwood to protect himself from the elements, and to store his few possessions.

One day, after scavenging for food, he arrived home to find his little hut in flames, with smoke rolling up to the sky. He felt the worst had happened, and everything was lost.

He was stunned with disbelief, grief, and anger. He cried out, "God! How could you do this to me?"

Early the next day, he was awakened by the sound of a ship approaching the island!

It had come to rescue him! "How did you know I was here?" asked the weary man of his rescuers. "We saw your smoke signal," they replied.

Moral of the Story:

It's easy to get discouraged when things are not going well. God is at work even in the midst of pain, stress, or suffering. Remember that the next time your little hut is burning. It just might be the smoke signal that summons the Grace of God.

WEEKLY GIGGLES

That awkward moment when you spell a word so wrong that even autocorrect is like, "I got nothing man..."
