

GOLDEN AGERS

Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 8, ISSUE 14

APRIL 5, 2024

Easter Was Fabulous!

So many wonderful things happened at church this past weekend! I wish you all could have been with us! We miss y'all a LOT and would love to get you here for worship. Call me & let's see what we can do to make that happen.

Homecoming is April 28th and the food will be catered this year, so you can come and not feel guilty about not cooking anything. See how easy that is? The committee is also planning games and an ice cream truck for after lunch. Call me!

There are some fun things to celebrate this week that have wild stories in my life. Such as:

-National Safety Pin Day: They don't always hold stuff. For a majorette at CHS only a needle & thread would do.

-No Housework Day: Okay, seriously, who does NOT want to celebrate this?

-Clean Up Your Pantry Day: I have a truly gorgeous walk-in pantry with tons of shelves that is sometimes so neat that my friends sneak in during gatherings & rearrange things.

-Ranch Water Day: In case you don't know, this has absolutely nothing to do with drinking out of a creek.

-Submarine Day: I am proud to report that my first two grandkids know the words & can sing "Yellow Submarine". Thanks, Papa Steve.

-Trading Cards for Grown-ups: We have a trading card with Steve's dad on it. Seems that was a thing in college football back in the day.

-Cherish An Antique Day: One of my very favorites as I have tons of them.

-Walk On Your Wild Side Day: I celebrate this every day! It's just how I roll!

The Week of April 7-13 is:

- Bat Appreciation Week
- National Library Week
- National Window Safety Week

-Some celebrations only last a day:

- 7th- Dictionary Day
 - International Beaver Day
 - National Beer Day
 - National Coffee Cake Day
 - National Handmade Day
 - No Housework Day (YAH!)
- 8th- Draw a Bird Day
 - National Empanada Day
 - National Zoo Lovers Day
 - Trading Cards for Grown-Ups Day
- 9th- Appomattox Day
 - Jumbo the Elephant Day

A Sunday School teacher decided to have her young class memorize all of Psalm 23. She gave them a month to learn it. Ricky was excited about the task, but he just couldn't remember the entire Psalm. After much practice, he could barely get past the first line.

On the day the kids were scheduled to recite Psalm 23 in front of the entire congregation, Ricky was very nervous. When it was his turn, he stepped up to the microphone and said proudly, "The Lord is my Shepherd, and that's all I need to know."

The SS teacher was explaining the story of Elijah the Prophet & the false prophets of Baal. She explained how Elijah built the altar, put wood on it, cut the steer in pieces, and laid it upon the altar. Then Elijah commanded the people of God to fill four barrels of water & pour it on the altar. He had them do this four times. "Now," said the teacher, "can anyone tell me why the Lord would have Elijah pour water over the steer on the altar?"

A little girl sitting in the back of the room started jumping up and down & waving her hand, "I know! I know!" she said. "To make the gravy!"

BTW—thanks to Reita Stone for sharing that the gadget I showed you a few weeks ago is used to remove the core of a GRAPEFRUIT. WOW!
